Students task sheet

Choose the best heading (the name of the event) to each short description.

Food- Eating out

1. _____

This habit belongs to England, but it originates in France. In England, the traditional time for this event was four or five o'clock and no one stayed after seven o'clock. Nowadays, most restaurants serve it from three to five o'clock. It does not mean just the drink but also the menu is served and includes three courses: savouries, scones and pastries.

2. _____

At this occasion the meat is grilled. It can be of any kind- chicken, pork or beef. The grilled meat is then put into a large bun and served with various kinds of vegetables. You can invite friends to your garden, eat and drink and have fun together. It is impossible to organise such event when the weather is bad, so the best season is spring or summer.

3. _____

It is a pleasant meal eaten outdoors ideally taking place in a beautiful landscape such as a park, beside a lake. This is why it also depends on weather. You need to carry some food- for example sandwiches, cakes, crisps, chocolate, vegetables, fruit and you can take some drinks, too. All of these you put into a special basket. The most important thing is the blanket which you place on a beautiful grass and prepare a romantic meal.

4. _____

This event is typical mainly for the USA. One family which decides to organise it makes a couple of phone-calls to other friends living nearby. Each of the couples or families is supposed to bring one course of the meal. The only thing they know is which course they should bring. Nobody knows exactly what they are going to eat and it is kept secret until that evening. Everybody is looking forward to surprising meals.
